

Robert K. Agar, Jr. Volunteerism Award

Beginning in 1965, Berkshire United Way has annually selected as "Volunteer of the Year" a local volunteer whose personal commitment and dedication to the ideals of volunteerism was, in the judgement of others, truly exemplary. From 1965 through to 1980, 16 such awards were made to persons whose volunteer activity was closely associated with Berkshire United Way itself, or one of its affiliated agencies. Honorees during that period were:

- 1965 Daniel J. Miraglia - Catholic Youth Center

- 1980 Mr. Bertram G. Hines - G.E. Good Neighbor Fund

In 1981, following the untimely death of Mr. Robert K. Agar, Jr., a member of the Berkshire United Way Board of Directors, the Award was renamed to honor his memory.

That year, and again in 1982 and 1983, the primary criteria for nomination of this award was a high level of volunteer activity in support of Berkshire United Way and/or its affiliated agencies. Honorees in those years were:

- 1981 Mr. James Craig - (Co-recipients) U.W. of Central Berkshire
Mr. Albert E. Easton
- 1982 Ms. Mitzi Scelsi - United Cerebral Palsy
- 1983 Attorney Cynthia Spinola, Berkshire United Way

Beginning in 1984, a conscious decision was made by volunteers to reposition the Agar Award as an honor open to any individual whose significant commitment to the ideals and spirit of volunteer service to the community was exemplary and worthy of emulation. The previous restriction to activity in support of the "United Way Family" was dropped. Honorees to date who have met this criteria are:

Thomas F. Cooney Award

This award, first introduced in 1982, honors past Campaign Chairman, Thomas F. Cooney, and was established following his untimely and accidental death. The Award is particularly unique in that, subsequent to his United Way service in Berkshire County, Mr. Cooney moved to Fall River, Massachusetts where he also eventually served as that community's United Way Campaign Chairman. In his memory, the United Way of Greater Fall River has also established an annual "Thomas F. Cooney Award" for outstanding volunteer service.

Here in the Berkshires, the Cooney Award has evolved into a presentation which honors Berkshire United Way volunteers who have a significant and long term history of activity in support of the annual campaign. While past campaign chairs are not excluded from consideration, greater weight is placed on continuous, year-to-year volunteer commitment to the campaign. The Cooney Award is presented, with the recipient's foreknowledge, during the September Campaign Kick-off by the prior year's recipient. Past recipients Include:
